FEMININE WEALTH IGNITE

*A 3-Day Fire Horse Activation for the Visionary Woman Ready to Lead, Blaze &
Become Unstoppable in 2026*

DAY ONE:
BECOME HER, THE FIRE
HORSE WOMAN

INTEGRATING YOUR NEW FIRE HORSE WOMAN ARCHETYPE

You just burned away the old identity... Meet the Fire Horse Woman rising from the ashes.

The Hider, the Prover, and the Floater identities served you once. They kept you safe. But 2026 is the Year of the Fire Horse and she doesn't hide, prove, or float. She RIDES.

Reflect on which of these identities you've been holding onto out of safety. (No shame here, Sister, just authenticity.)

The Fire Horse woman is not someday, she's NOW. You don't become her by working harder or waiting for confidence. You become her by deciding.

Your Assignment:

1. Choose ONE archetype calling you the loudest.
2. Pick ONE practice from her list to do TODAY.
3. Journal on the following questions:

How does she move differently?

How does she lead differently?

What would change in your business, your relationships, and your life if you acted like her today?

THE FIRE HORSE WOMAN ARCHETYPES

For the Former Hider...

The Radiant Rebel

The Firepath Priestess

For the Former Prover...

The Ember Sovereign

The Wildflame Oracle

For the Former Floater...

The Solar Huntress

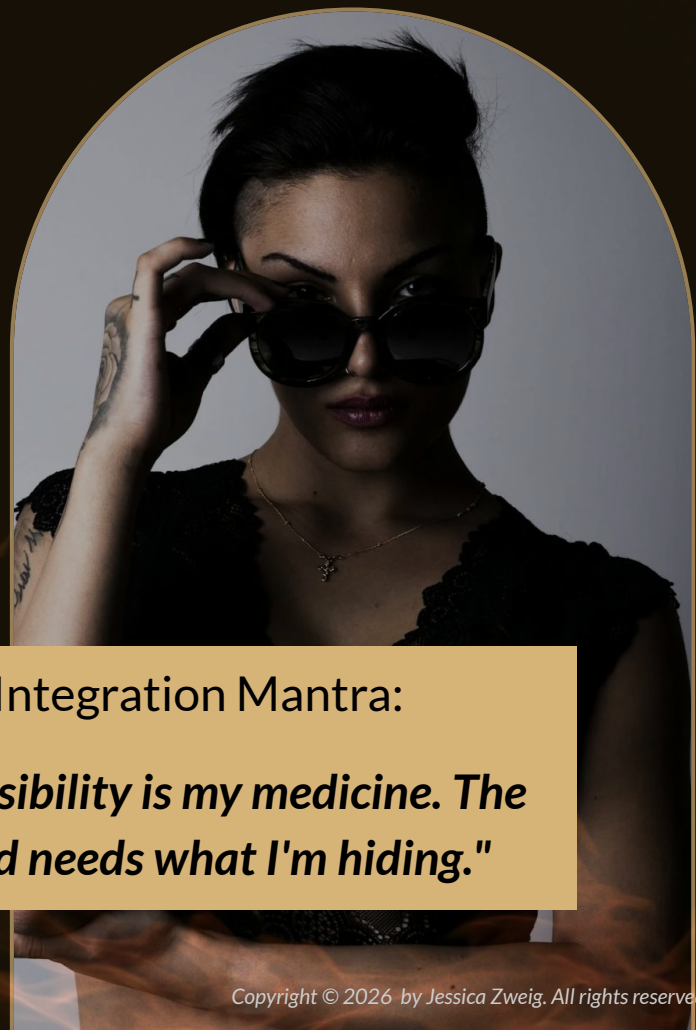

The Fireline Commander

FOR THE FORMER HIDER: THE RADIANT REBEL

*She refuses every label, box, and limitation ever placed on her,
and she does it out loud.*

How She Moves:

- Posts the thing that scares her before she's "ready" (because ready is a trap)
- Books the speaking gig, podcast interview, or stage she's been "not qualified enough" for
- Shows her face on video talking about the thing she's been hiding in her journal

Integration Mantra:

"My visibility is my medicine. The world needs what I'm hiding."

FOR THE FORMER HIDER:

THE FIREPATH PRIESTESS

She makes bold, decisive moves that carve new paths for others to follow and burns away illusion with her truth.

How She Moves:

- Sends the email where she's honest about her boundaries, her pricing, or what she's actually available for
- Says the truth in the room everyone's thinking but no one's saying
- Leads with her actual values, not the "professional" version

Integration Mantra:

"I am the path. My truth
carves the way."

FOR THE FORMER PROVER:

THE EMBER SOVEREIGN

She rules her life with sacred fire, clear boundaries, and unapologetic authority, without explaining herself.

How She Moves:

- Texts back "No, that doesn't work for me" to the next request that makes her stomach tighten, with ZERO follow-up explanation
- Blocks out 2 hours this week labeled "CEO Time" and guards it like she'd guard a million-dollar client call
- Raises her prices without justifying why she's worth it

Integration Mantra:

"I don't earn sovereignty.
I claim it."

FOR THE FORMER PROVER:

THE WILDFLAME ORACLE

She hears destiny before it arrives and moves with prophetic instinct, trusting her body over the data.

How She Moves:

- Tracks her body's "yes" and "no" signals and follows them without override
- Makes the "illogical" decision her intuition has been screaming about (even if the spreadsheet says otherwise)
- Acts on her "random" impulses within 24 hours (the text, the offer, the pivot she "can't explain")

Integration Mantra:

"My intuition is data. My body is the oracle."

FOR THE FORMER FLOATER: THE SOLAR HUNTRESS

She chases only what lights her soul on fire and always hits her mark because she knows where she's aiming.

How She Moves:

- Names her ONE main revenue goal for Q1, writes it on her mirror, her desktop, her phone wallpaper
- Creates a Monday ritual where she identifies her TOP 3 needle-movers for the week (not 47 tasks, just 3)
- Says no to every shiny opportunity that doesn't directly serve her declared target

Integration Mantra:

"Focus is my superpower. Clarity is my compass."

FOR THE FORMER FLOATER: THE FIRELINE COMMANDER

She makes BOLD, decisive moves that carve new paths for others to follow

How She Moves:

- She builds infrastructure that runs without her mood and removes herself from daily decision fatigue
- She clean decisions and communicates them clearly (to her team, audience, or clients), and uses public commitment as accountability
- She sets firm expectations around her availability that protect her nervous system

Integration Mantra:

"I don't need permission to see the future. I need devotion to build it."
